A Canadian Success Story?

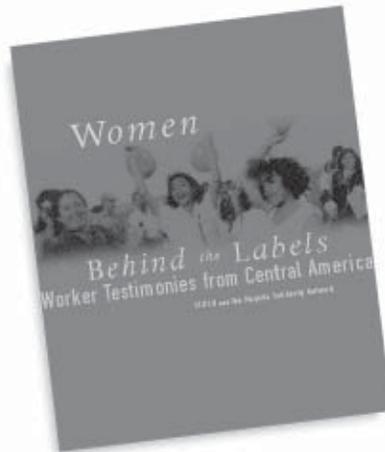

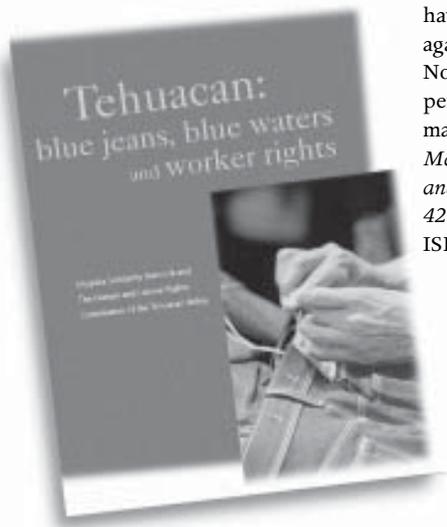

Gildan Activewear: T-shirts, Free Trade and Worker Rights

A revealing look at the impacts of free trade on the lives of maquiladora workers who make Gildan T-shirts in Honduras, Mexico and El Salvador. Offers concrete recommendations to the company and stakeholders on ways to improve working conditions and labour practices. (Also available in Spanish.)

Maquila Solidarity Network and the Honduran Independent Monitoring Team, May 2003, 57 pages
ISBN 0-9686681-4-3

Tehuacan: Blue Jeans, Blue Waters and Worker Rights

A report on the effects of free trade and the restructuring jean industry on workers, indigenous communities and the environment in the Tehuacan Valley, Mexico. Calls for local action and international solidarity, and cautions against extending the Tehuacan economic model to southern Mexico and Central America through the Plan Puebla-Panama. (Also available in Spanish.)
Maquila Solidarity Network and the Human and Labour Rights Commission of the Tehuacan Valley, February 2003, 59 pages
ISBN 0-9686681-3-5

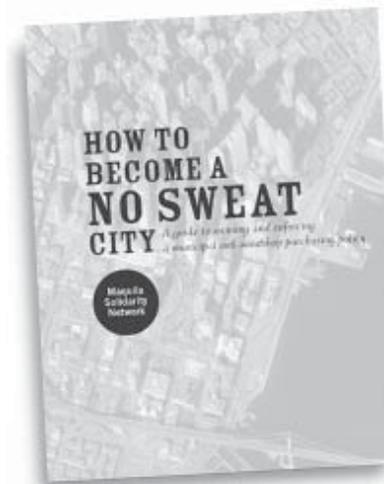

Women Behind the Labels: Worker Testimonies from Central America

Stories from pioneer union organizers in the maquilas and banana plantations of Guatemala and Honduras who have inspired campaigns against sweatshops across North America. Provides first-person accounts of life in the maquilas.
Maquila Solidarity Network and STITCH, September 2000, 42 pages
ISBN 0-9686681-2-7

Stop Sweatshops: an Education/Action Kit

A starter kit for anyone interested in learning more about sweatshops, raising awareness in their community and promoting local action. Includes an Educator's Handbook with tips on how to design workshops and educational activities about sweatshops, as well as Action Tools on corporate research and how to organize the ever-popular "Sweatshop Fashion Show."
Maquila Solidarity Network, May 2000
ISBN 0-9686681-1-9

How to Become a No Sweat City and How to Become a No Sweat School

Two campaign guides based on the experiences of No Sweat campaigners across Canada, offering practical advice on how to win and enforce municipal and school board anti-sweatshop purchasing policies. Campaign resource tools include strategies for approaching and winning support from municipal council and school board trustees, researching purchasing policies, building an effective coalition, and mobilizing community support and media interest.
Maquila Solidarity Network, October 2003, 28 pages
